

ROALD DAHL ON FILM

My Dream Factory

by Nikola Milinkovic of Takovski Ustanak school

I dream, dream, so I exist. What would I be without my dreams? When I listen to that voice in my head telling me about the world which I have to explore I get enthusiastic and start to dream. I always have positive thinking and try never to lose faith in myself. If you dream but say "Oh, I want that, but it's impossible", you will never achieve anything. Everything is achievable but one should work hard and believe in his dreams.

I am free like a bird in the sky, happy. My view is gorgeous, green fields and forests under me, blue and green water that falls down the cliff, various flowers blooming. This makes the rainbow of feelings and colours in my head and soul. It helps me to embrace failure, to learn from it. It gives me hope and strength to go on. Success often comes after many mistakes and it rarely happens in one night. So we have to be patient and we should try over and over until we see our dreams coming true.

If you have a dream, you have a goal. If you have a goal, you have a purpose to do what makes you happy.

CHAPTER

www.filmhubwales.org/roalddahlonfilm

f roalddahlonfilm
@filmhubwales

Join the conversation #RoaldDahlOnFilm

