

Sol Cinema, Film Hub Wales & Chapter Cinema present

REVOLUTION '17

Showing at 11am-1pm, 2pm-3.30pm and 4pm-5pm

Join us at Art Car Boutique for a unique, mobile, solar-powered cinema experience!

This programme of short films is curated by Sol Cinema, Film Hub Wales and Chapter Cinema as part of R17 - an arts season celebrating the Russian Revolution centenary.

Using revolution as inspiration, this series of shorts explores the different ways we can politically, socially and culturally stand up for what we believe in.

FILMS

All films are under 7 minutes long. Please take note of ratings.

Akala - Find No Enemy

Directed by GlobalFaction - Rating: 12

Akala is talked of as a modern Shakespeare. He uses hip-hop poetry to get a powerful message across about racism in the UK today. + 'LEGO: Everything is Not Awesome' by Green Peace

Wild Horses of Newbury

Directed by Mark Carrol

Produced by Undercurrents.org - Rating: U

During the construction of the Newbury Bypass, two wild horses suddenly appear to stand between the chainsaws and the trees. + 'LEGO: Everything is Not Awesome' by Green Peace

Reclaim the Power

Directed by Zoe Broughton

Produced by Undercurrents.org - Rating: U

Environmental activists occupy and shut down the Welsh Ffod-y-fran open cast coal mine, stopping the Miller Argent company extracting 10 million tonnes of coal over 15 years.

Yarlswood

Directed by Julie Freebird

Produced by Undercurrents.org - Rating: PG

Campaigners from across the UK surround Yarlswood Immigration Removal Centre, demanding that the facility, which houses mainly women, is closed immediately. + 'LEGO: Everything is Not Awesome' by Green Peace

Be The Change

Directed by Filmwork Studios - Rating: U

Jay Shetty produces videos to make 'wisdom go viral'. He wants you to rethink the way you define happiness in a way that doesn't revolve around power and wealth. + 'How to Let Go of the World (and Love All the Things Climate Can't Change)' by Josh Fox
