

ROALD DAHL ON FILM

"But why did you take me?"

"I had to take you because the first thing you'd be doing you'd be scuddling around yoddlng the news that you were actually seeing a Giant and then there'd be a great rumpelumpus wouldn't there and all the human beans would be rummaging and whiffing for the Giant what you saw and getting wildly excited and then they'd be locking me up in a cage to be looked at with all the squiggling - you know, hippodumplings and crocodowndillies and gloggyraffs and then there would be a gigantic Giant hunt of the boys!"
