

ROALD DAHL ON FILM

My Dream Factory

by Olga Djurovic of Takovski Ustanak school

D is for damage in this World, for all mistakes we have done and words we have said. D is for darkness in which little or no light can be seen. D is for dependent or controlled by something else. But D is also a forth letter in the alphabet. D is for a decision, a choice that you make about something after thinking about several possibilities

R is for rain, water that falls in drops from the clouds in the sky. But rain is not just that, rain is here to teach us that life isn't about waiting for it to stop, it is about learning to dance with it.

E is like your ego, conscious mind, the part of your identity that you consider your "self." E is for emotions that affect us thought the day. E is for energy that is provided by dreams.

A is for ambition that is material substantive meaning of dreams. A is for a very big dream catcher that is hanging above our bed.

"Above all, watch with glittering eyes the whole world around you because the greatest secrets are always hidden in the most unlikely places." Roald Dahl

M is for little Matilda that went to Africa with Ernest Hemingway and to India with Rudyard Kipling . She travelled all over the world while sitting in her little room in an English village.

"By the time I am nearing the end of a story, the first part will have been reread and altered and corrected at least one hundred and fifty times. I am suspicious of both facility and speed. Good writing is essentially rewriting. I am positive of this."
