Media Content Pack

INTRO:

First off, thank you for taking an interest in our documentary and for reading this. We'll try to make it quick.

The images and videos in this folder are available to use by media outlets.

The copyright to the content lies with EatSleep Media unless stated otherwise.

We haven't plastered copyright notices and rights captions on the content, but we would please ask you to give credit where it is appropriate.

IMAGES:

Archive:

While making the film we got in touch with a photographer called Martin Johnson.

Martin has an amazing archive of images, many of which have never been published. As we were making the film we found out there were even some images Martin didn't realise he had.

We are extremely grateful to Martin for giving us access to his archive as it helps to bring the film to life.

Where appropriate, images belonging to Martin are credited as such.

BTS:

Any images from the modern day and from a behind the scenes perspective belong to EatSleep Media so please credit as such.

VIDEO:

Archive:

There is a mixture of archive football action, media reports and video from other sources throughout the video.

We have permission to use the footage in the film and as part of the promotional work.

Any archive footage in the clips we release for publicity purposes can be used with credit to EatSleep Media but cannot be used for any other purpose.

Again, we were delighted to uncover some previously unseen footage from people we have talked to while making the film. It has been a real privilege and we thank everyone who has helped us along the way.

Present day footage:

Any interviews or footage filmed in the present day belongs to EatSleep Media so please credit us where appropriate.

OTHER REQUESTS:

Got a particular clip in mind, or an idea for a feature or interview you want for your own title and no one else?

No problem, let's have a chat about it and see what's possible.
